This version add a rescue registration in case where our hosting provider interrupt the connection during the transfert and return a cookie instead of the data.

When Jms Multi Sites detects this case, it retries with an alternate solution during the registration.