Module Sharing
Posted by ljk - 2010/04/07 01:49

Hello,

Is it possible to have module sharing when you set the sites up to have different databases. Something like the article sharing extension, except for modules?

I need to have an article show in a module position and I want that article/module to be shared on all of the multi-sites. Do you know how to go about doing this? Is there a module extension that allows you to show an article that works with the multi-site?

Thanks.
